MANAGER'S COMMENT:

In the near term, tariff negotiations will continue to dominate market headlines and drive market movements globally. Additionally, we expect central banks to continue with the current trajectory for rate cuts to cushion their respective economies from recessionary risks. We are of the view that the US Fed Funds Rate may ease by 50 bps in 2H25 in view of slower economic growth arising from external headwinds. Similarly, we opine that Bank Negara Malaysia will cut the OPR by 25 bps in 2H25. We expect government and high-quality corporate bonds to perform in the backdrop of a weaker credit environment and current yields to be steady given that market has already priced-in at least a 25 bps cut in the 2H25. With current relatively low yield environment, we are maintaining our duration range of between 5 – 7 years, focusing on high quality corporate bond for yield pick-up and trading opportunities for bonds.
